

Cimco Inc. is a non-electrical contractor that performs substation construction and maintenance in Arkansas and surrounding states. We provide all necessary supervision and manpower to complete substation and transmission line projects that include foundations, underground conduit, and grounding. We assist major energy suppliers after storm damage and assist in emergency repair.